Welcome extended family for Christmas or Hanukkah in an outdoor living space. With Infratech heaters, you can extend the outdoor living season by months in cold climates, to year-round in warmer areas.

Why are Infratech heating systems a perfect fit for the holidays? Infratech heaters are eco-friendly, emitting an ambient, pleasing glow that transfers heat directly to people and furniture and will not blow away in windy conditions. Enjoy the warm scent of holiday meals without the harsh odors, emissions, or negative environmental effects released by traditional gas outdoor heaters. Infratech heaters are also energy-efficient, and operate for only pennies a day – so you can spend less on your energy bill and more on gifts for loved ones. Infratech heaters can be installed with a variety of mounting options, including wall, ceiling, pole and flush mounting, for a seamless look that blends effortlessly in with your existing décor. Best of all, Infratech heaters bring warm, climate-controlled comfort to any gathering – for the most memorable outdoor holiday celebrations yet.
